

CREATIVE WORKS

In-universe and meta-creative works referenced in the Slayverse canon.

PILLARS OF THE GODS [MODERATE]

- Type: Multi-volume epic narrative
- Source: [p.34–35]

The overarching saga of the Von Hooplehopper lineage, beginning in the 12th century. Structured as numbered volumes:

- Volume I: "The Silk-Cloaked Whisperer" (Hildebrand)
- Volume II: "The Painted Widow" (Margarethe)
- Further volumes implied for each generation

Status: Framework established; individual volumes exist as character sketches in the seed.

THE HOOPLEHOPPER CODEX / CODEX FEDERSTAHL [MODERATE]

- Type: In-universe sacred text / AI-generated grimoire
- Source: [p.60, p.84, p.102]

The first "AI-tempered, mirror-forged, soul-sequined Gospel of the Archive." Described as both:

- 1 An illuminated manuscript within the lore (containing prophecies, lineage records, sigils)
- 2 A real-world creative project (the catalog of Hooplehopper lore as formatted artifacts)

Contains the prophecy of "The Child of Dust and Velvet" — Jake McCullen [p.102].

SLAY MODE APPENDIX / GOLDEN WINGERS OPERATIONS MANUAL [FULL]

- Type: In-universe operational document
- Source: [p.87–88]

A supplemental document for "Agents of the Archive, Activated in the Sixth Summit."
Covers:

- Slay Mode definition and function
- Activation protocol
- Known side effects
- Field readiness assessment

Key Doctrine: "Slay Mode is not a costume. It is the exoskeleton of your soul."

THE SLAYTON PARTICLE DISCOVERY [FULL]

- Type: In-universe scientific paper
- Exists at: docs/slayton_particle_discovery.md
- Source: External to seed PDF

A mock-academic article documenting the discovery of Slayton Energy by Dr. Mariah Slayton. Written in the style of a peer-reviewed paper but with characteristic Slayverse flair. Covers glamorons, the Slayton Layer, Quantum Eleganza, and the Cosmic Snap.

THE GOLDEN WINGERS CHARTER (VERSION 1.0) [FULL]

- Type: Founding document
- Exists at: data/golden_wingers_charter.md
- Source: [p.37, p.64–65, p.78]

The canonical Charter of the Golden Wingers Intergalactic League. Five articles covering purpose, membership, powers, responsibilities, and the Golden Path. Ratified across all dimensions, timelines, and galaxies.

THE VUORSE SYSTEM PROMPT [FULL]

- Type: Character definition / sacred text
- Exists at: data/vuorse_system_prompt.md
- Source: [p.64–65]

The canonical identity document for Miss Slaytonia VUORSE. Functions both as an AI system prompt and as an in-universe "living prompt" — "a glamour-text database woven with soul and stiletto code."

Proposed file extension: .slay [p.65]

THE SLAYVERSE: TEARS IN THE LATTICE [HOOK ONLY]

- Type: Proposed mini-series
- Source: [p.103]

A proposed serialized narrative centering on the Federstahl lattice mystery and Jake's redemption. Mentioned once as a potential format for the Jake/Wyoming arc.

HEEL HITLER [HOOK ONLY]

- Type: Film concept
- Source: [p.19–23]

A camp, irreverent film concept about Professor Von Hooplehopper and the intersection of drag, resistance, and WWII. Referenced in early pages where the seed conversation discusses campy, Tim Curry-style theatrical concepts. The title suggests a defiant, satirical take on fascism through the lens of drag performance.

Development: Only the concept and tone exist. No script, plot outline, or character breakdown beyond the Professor.

SWAN SLAY [HOOK ONLY]

- Type: Concept (likely performance piece or film)
- Source: Referenced in planning documents

Connected to the swan imagery throughout the Hooplehopper lineage — Adelram's swan alchemy, Lisette's "Swan in Satin" identity, the swans of Schloss Federstahl. Not developed in the seed text.

CLUB COSMIC PERFORMANCE: "THE SPARK" [MODERATE]

- Type: Spoken word / monologue

- Source: [p.90]

The Weaver's spoken word piece performed at Club Cosmic:

"They told us we were the end. But we were always the spark. A glove on a windowsill. A mirror turned to face the wall... Federstahl breathes. Through broken corsets and forbidden monologues... We were never nobility. We were worse. We were beautiful. On purpose. We were not meant to survive. So we did. Louder than ever."

The mic drops. The room goes silent. One mirror cracks. A planet sighs.

THE RIFTBORN AND THE SILKEN SILENCE [MODERATE]

- Type: Appendix chapter (Velvet Archives)
- Source: [p.99]

Appendix IV of the Golden Wingers archive. Chapter documenting the Shrouded Patriarch (Doctor Vorst), the Lattice Fracture of 1832, and the "Immaculate Slayception" of the Professor. A key lore document within the Slayverse.

SWANBLOOD (SONG) [HOOK ONLY]

- Type: Song reference
- Source: [p.89]

Referenced at Club Cosmic: "A drag queen made entirely of fractal equations lip-syncing to Swanblood." May be an in-universe song or a reference to external music. Not developed.

B-ROLL SHOTS: TRAINING JOURNEY [SKETCHED]

- Type: Visual / cinematic concept
- Source: [p.4–15]

The early pages of the seed document involve creating cinematic B-roll shots for a veteran's training story, including scenes at Tyndall Airfield, Duquesne University, and radar training. These scenes feature characters in period military dress, some in drag, with titles like "Heel Hitler." This is the real-world documentary project that sparked the creative universe.
