

HUMAN PACKET — DJ PARALLAX

Sealed at Club Cosmic "now" (timeless register). Actor basis: assumption (thin HOOK ONLY dossier).

ACTOR

- Name (known): DJ Parallax
- Name (forgotten / withheld): Weimar stage name not recovered this run
- Cutoff: After arrival and several Club Cosmic sets; before any Weaver unveiling of Tier 3 into Season 1

KNOWS (SIMULATION KNOWLEDGE SEAL)

- They were a bard — voice, verse, room-holding — in a city of smoke, stage lights, and tightening streets (assumption: Berlin, late Weimar)
- Mid-song, the world tore sideways; they did not choose the door
- This place is not Earth-time; the crowd is not their crowd; the corset shines in ways stays never did
- When they play, something in the room holds — the floor steadies, the mirrors behave (inference from stitch-music seed)
- Someone/something here calls them Parallax; they answer because the old name does not fit the speakers

DOES NOT KNOW

- Federstahl sabotage doctrines / Ch II veiled truths (sealed; out of packet)
- Wyoming Rift, Jake, mother wound, Season 1 spine
- Whether they are "Hooplehopper" by any paper
- How to reverse the snag on purpose
- The true count or guardianship of the seven fissures

DECISION GRAPH

Actor: DJ Parallax

Cutoff: Club Cosmic now (post-arrival)

Knows: origin-as-bard fragments; displacement-as-tear; stitch-power of the set

Does not know: Lattice conspiracy; Wyoming; reverse path

Options:

A — Keep the decks. Treat the set as the new bard-craft. Stitch the room. Do not dig.

B — Dig. Use the underfloor terminal between sets to hunt the origin frequency / era.

C — Walk out of the club into Andromeda fringe dark seeking an Earth fissure landing (stretch).

ADJUDICATION (PRIMARY)

- Chosen: A — Keep the decks (simulation)
- Motive: The room needs the stitch more than their grief needs a map; bard craft survived by changing instrument
- Rejected for primary: B (alive as branch), C (stretch / likely lethal or unstoryable without Tier 3 expansion budget)

— Gandalf the Gray Eye
